

Big Savings For The Thrifty Housewife

Few homes indeed do not feel the need of economy. The necessity of making every penny count touches the purse of every housewife. It is doubtful if there is a single article employed as a food or in the preparation of food that demands more buying wisdom than Baking Powder. Upon its quality depends the success and economy of the bakings themselves.

Calumet Baking Powder enables the housewife to make three worth while savings. She saves when she buys it—it is moderate in price. She saves when she uses it—she uses only half as much as is required of most other powders. She saves materials it is used with—it never permits bake-day failure. Any woman can use Calumet with absolute certainty of best results—delicious, tasty bakings that are pure and wholesome.

True home economy of time, material and effort is completely handled in Reliable Recipes, the 76-page Cook Book and Household Hints. A copy is yours FREE—for the asking. Address Home Economics Dept., Calumet Baking Powder Co., 4109 Fullmore St., Chicago, Ill.—Adv.

FOUR HUNDRED MEET DEATH IN PARIS STREETS

(By Associated Press)

PARIS, Jan. 30.—Four hundred persons were killed in Paris streets by automobiles or horse-drawn vehicles, tramways and other means of locomotion in 1921.

The problem of street traffic has been the subject of many investigations and numerous reports and recommendations have been made to Prefect of Police Leaullier.

Some time ago red bands about six feet wide were painted across the streets at the intersections of the busiest corners of the city. Policemen were stationed at these points to motion automobiles to stop and pedestrians crossing the streets on the red bands were supposed to be in absolute safety.

Pedestrians, however, seemed to think it was below their dignity to walk the red band, and now they have been abandoned for "zones of safety." The latter will consist of adopting the system in vogue in New York at the busiest corners along Broadway or Fifth avenue.

RUSSIAN CITY SHOWS WRECK OF REVOLUTION

(By Associated Press)

ASTRAKHAN, Russia, Jan. 31.—Once prosperous but now ravaged by revolution, the situation of this city reminds the visitor of the condition of New Orleans after the Civil war.

It is trying to regain its former prosperity but the process is slow. Even its position resembles New Orleans in some ways. The city is situated on an island on a point where the Volga river divides into many smaller streams forming a delta that extends 60 miles to the Caspian sea.

The commerce of Astrakhan was once comparable with that of St. Louis, Memphis or of New Orleans. It was rich in furs, in fish, in caviar and busy handling freight which traversed the Volga. There was once food for every mouth and clothes for every back, work aplenty for every man.

Today are seen the wrecks of the combat between the imperial and revolutionary forces, but no sympathy is expressed with communism. "We have had enough," said one of the workmen who, together with thousands of his fellows and for 18 days, just after the Petrograd and Moscow risings in 1917, took to arms and beheaded the Cossack troops and the wealthy people of the city, gathered in the Kremlin walls, in soldier barracks and other points at the heart of the business district.

The immediate result of these 18 days of carnage was the destruction of the duma buildings, the governor's house, the great bazaar and several blocks of stores filled with drygoods and Persian and Turkish carpets, silks and other fineries.

The ultimate result is indicated by the bare, brick-burned walls today standing gaunt and cheerless, with no work on the river and no food in the homes for these workmen. The people have little money to buy anything.

In the provincial hospital where 300 patients lie there was practically no breath for famine refugees nor quinine for fever sufferers.

AMUSEMENT HALL IS BEING CONSIDERED

While there has been some discussion among the Knights of Pythias regarding the construction of an amusement hall on the site of the old Aldome, nothing tangible has resulted. At a meeting of the lodge held last night, the advisability of erecting a building was up for informal discussion, and the opinion prevailed that if a hall was constructed the walls should be of terra-cotta. Accordingly a committee was selected with instructions to ascertain the cost of a fireproof structure. Property owners have made it known that they will oppose any attempt to construct a frame building, having had their property jeopardized on two different occasions.

THE GIRL ON THE JOB

How to Succeed—How to Get Ahead—How to Make Good

By JESSIE ROBERTS

DO YOU WANT SUCCESS?

DO YOU want to make a success of your business life or do you put that second to having a good time? Don't complain if you can't have both. The girl who runs around from party to party is not going to get on her feet in the new state for doing it well. Her mind is not clear, her body is not alert. She is first.

Are you willing to do the uninteresting part of your job well, or do you skip what you don't like to do? Every job has its grind side. But to succeed you must make that grind worth while by doing it well. It is part of the price you pay for success.

You must keep in good physical condition if you want success. You need proper rest, enough sleep and healthful food. You need exercise in the open air. Keeping fit is part of the price you must pay for success.

A number of girls regard an office as a sort of matrimonial bureau. Their first idea is to be fascinating to the male element. But if that is what you are after, don't say you want success in your business, and don't be surprised if you see other girls who do want success get advancement while you stay put.

Success is a big thing. The successful woman is not afraid of losing her job. She knows that her work is so good that an employer will be lucky to get her, or that, if she is in business for herself, she is sure of results. But success is not an accident.

THE ROMANCE OF WORDS

"GUILLOTINE."

ACCORDING to history as it is popularly accepted, the instrument by which criminals are automatically beheaded was invented by Joseph Ignace Guillotine, who was also the first victim of the machine. Outside of the fact that Doctor Guillotine neither invented the apparatus nor perished by it, the general impression of the matter is fairly correct.

The original model for the guillotine was constructed by a German piano-maker named Schmitt, under the direction of Doctor Louis, a French surgeon, who in turn obtained his idea from the manaja, a somewhat similar instrument which had been used in the Latin countries for centuries. At first, the invention was known as the "Loulou," but, owing to the fact that Doctor Guillotine waged ceaseless warfare upon the barbarities of the rack and the wheel and continually urged the adoption of this more humane method of inflicting death penalty, his name was indelibly associated with it. On March 25, 1792, the national assembly passed the resolution recommending the use of the machine in all French prisons and it was publicly used a month later in the beheading of a prisoner named Pelissier.

Far from perishing by the invention, which, despite his protests, was called by his name, Doctor Guillotine died in his bed in 1814—having achieved a vicarious fame which he did not desire and to which he was not entitled.

FLAPPERS RULE IN CALIFORNIA STUDENT ROLES

(By Associated Press)

BERKELEY, Cal., Jan. 31.—Approximately 2000 "flappers" are on the University of California student rolls, Miss Mary Ida Bentley, former secretary of San Francisco Young Women's Christian Association, declared in an address here.

"Flappers," Miss Bentley said, "usually are girls who believe personality is physical, who consider all advice as abstract, who love continual change, who converse in generalities and who are in many higher institutions of learning."

"To present a picture of the normal girl as she exists today is a daring venture," Miss Bentley said. "She has no average she has no group. She is a stranger to herself—sometimes especially to members of her own family—and cannot be compared with her kind of a previous age.

"We are tempted to think of her as living in a spirit of masquerade so rapidly and completely can she assume different and difficult roles of accomplishment."

"She tantalizes us by the simplicity of her artfulness and yet unreality. We find her light-hearted, which is the privilege of youth. She believes with Stevenson that 'to have missed the joy is to have missed it all.' We find her harboring secrets and imbedded emotions which are her hidden treasure in the mysterious discovery of herself as a private individual. If we do not understand these symptoms we call it temperament and try to dispose of the girl as difficult or as 'maddening discipline.'"
